INDICATIONS THAT TOURIST BUSI-NESS WILL BE LARGE.

Excellent Exhibit of the Louisville Nashville - General and Personal Railway News.

The passenger officials of the leading railroads in Central Passenger Association territory, trunk line territory, and throughout New England are actively preparing for lively campaign of California business, which they expect to surpass that of all previous seasons, and the outlook for Florida business is also particularly bright The tourist season opens Nov. 1, and sharp competition is looked for. The Southern Pacific and the Santa Fe are expected to make a great fight for business to Callfornia. The Southern Pacific has heretofore had its own way, but the Santa Fe is as well equipped this year as its big rival and will run its trains over its own lines to the Pacific coast. It is stated that the New England roads and the Central States roads will make a great feature of tourist travel this season and will have many tourist cars leaving Boston, New York, Buffalo, Philadelphia and other Eastern cities for Pacific coast points and for the South. Owing to the completion of the Seaboard Air-line through routes there will be three strong companies in the field this winter for Southern tourist travel, all running solid trains and of the highest standard of equipment. The Illinois Central will cut quite a figure in the tourist

A Prosperous Southern Road.

The Louisville & Nashville's annual report makes an excellent showing, of which its officials are very proud. The gross carnings were much larger than those of any previous year in the company's history, and are reported as $27,742,000, against $23,759,000 in year ending June 30, 1899, which was the next best year in the last ten were put into permanent improvement, yet the net earnings rose from $8,027,000 to $9,-138.000. In round numbers, gross earnings increased $4,000,000; operating expenses, $2,-900,000; net earnings, $1,100,000. The net divisible income of 1900 is $3,619,000, compared with $2,626,000 in 1899. The average mileage operated was 3,007 miles.

The Congestion Relieved. For six weeks past General Manager Dickinson, of the Union Pacific, has been engaged constantly in getting the heavy trains through as near on time as posrailroad circles he is alluded to as Trainmaster Dickinson. The unprecedented heavy travel and shipments of all classes of freight are what caused the congestion all along the line west of North Platte. The new cut-offs are now practically in use and will help relieve the situation. The Union Pacific people are congratulating themselves on the speed with which their construction has been pushed during the past summer, and say that in the early spring the new Sherman tunnel will be completed when, they can make even better time than

The inspection will occupy most of next week, the party reaching Indianapolis on Friday. The conservatism which has always characterized the Louisville & Nashville's business conduct in the various departments, will, it is thought, rule in the matter of maintaining the passenger organization. While it is true that Charles L. Stone, the new general passenger agent, comes from another road it is not thought probable that he will make many material changes. Mr. Stone has been general passenger agent of the Chicago & Eastern Illinois since 1891, and is considered strong as a competitor and positive as a friend.

At prominent railroad centers, shops, tracks, yards and terminals and hospitals are carefully inspected.

He Sues the Vandalia Road for $2,000 Damages-Other Cases in the Courts.

John M. Sullivan brought suit against Volney T. Malott, receiver of the Terra Haute & Indianapolis Railway, and the Union Railway Company yesterday for $2,000 damages. He alleges that he bought a round trip ticket over the Terre Haute & Indianapolis road at Terre Haute, Oct. 1, and came to Indianapolis. The next day when he went to return home he says the agent at the station called him a fraud when he signed his name to the return coupon and refused to stamp it. He avers he secured three witnesses to identify him, sible and so active has he been that in but the agent still refused to stamp the ticket, saying it was fraudulent. On this account, he says, he was detained in this city until the following day, when he attempted to pass through the gates at the Union Station and was turned away because his ticket was not stamped. He alleges that he was pushed down by the gateman and injured.

John W. Darnell sued the street car com pany for $25,000 damages for injuries he alleges he received on Morris street at the Belt crossing. He avers he is a dairyman, and was waiting at the crossing until a train passed when a street car ran into his wagon and he was thrown out.

The plaintiff alleges that he fell heir to one-third of his father's estate which was left in the control of the defendants, while he was in the regular army. When he returned he says he was to have been given possession. He alleges the defendants have refused to give him his property, which he says is valued at $2,000, and to pay for the time they have held it. He asks judgment for $3,000.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.-Rear Admiral Sampson in reply to questions says he has received an invitation to attend the Alabama state fair at Birmingham, but that it is impossible for him to accept. He says he has put himself in the hands of Dr. Beyer, of the receiving ship Wabash, and he feels that his health would suffer greatly from a trip to Birmingham. He says he is gaining steadily. The rear admiral says regarding Lieutenant Hobson's speech, which he praised the bravery and skill of Admiral Sampson and said he was dying of a broken heart: "When Hobson was here he asked me if he might say something to the people of his section about me. THREATENED BY BOXERS

"FOREIGN DEVILS" IN SOUTHERN CHINA NOW IN DANGER.

Proclamation Pasted at Lien-Chau, on North River-American Mission Property Imperiled.

HONG-KONG, Oct. 25.-Advices from Lien-Chau, on North river, say that American mission property there is threatened with destruction by Boxers, who have posted the following proclamation:

"We organized to protect our country and our homes and we rely upon one another to support the order to drive out the foreign devils. They are mad. Their folly passes description. They are the usurpers of our land. They disturb our borders. In all the provinces and prefectures chapels have been opened; and our people are deceived, ripped open and dis-emboweled, while the foreigners grow far on the revenues of China, insulting our officials and merchants and seizing our temples and palaces.

"The Emperor is indulgent and permits this. Who can foretell the intentions of the foreign devils. Day by day they act more outrageously. When we behold the present condition of affairs our hearts are bruised with grief. Therefore we have organized our strength to destroy the vouring wolf throughout the empire."

The Boxers took the American Presbyterian mission buildings, but have not destroyed them. Rebellion is spreading along East river and North river, in the province of Kwang-Si. It is supposed to be aimed at the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty, but the reports are so contradictory that it is next to impossible to form a lucid impression. In Canton the Chinese officials are taking the insurrection so lightly that foreigners believe it will be very difficult to

THE POLITICAL GAME.

One of Its Pawns Is the Gunner-Photographer of the St. Paul. "Tip," in New York Press. Politics is but a plaything when men are nominated to be beaten. In Brooklyn a negro has been put up for Assembly in a district hopelessly against him simply because no white man wanted the humiliation of defeat settled upon his record. Of course you can at all times find candidates. but no good man is set up to be knocked down in these small offices. In the bigger game things may be different, as when Platt humiliated Tracy and drove him out of the firm of Tracy, Boardman & Platt. In a district where Warwhoop Lynn looks like a lead-pipe cinch our side has playtully put up an ex-gunner in the German navy, Charles Vogt. Vogt is a good-sounding name for a candidate-provided he gets a majority of his namesakes, differently spelled. This candidate is known in his district as "Otto." He tended bar in a place where there were three Charleses, and in order to avoid confusion the proprietor dubbed him "Otto." "Otto" is not a bad fellow. When the Cuban war broke out he was among the first to enlist, and his assignment was to a gun on the St. Paul, under command of hour he took a snap shot of a flying shell. Commodore S. Nicholson Kane, Lieutenant Commander Driggs, Lieutenants Gillmore, Poyer, Young, Pattson, Dixon and Osborn and Surgeon Heneberger, most of whom are amateur camerists, inquired if he knew aught of development, and, being answered in the affirmative, obtained Captain Sigsbee's consent to establish the German in a dark room in the hold. So, from being a man behind the gun, "Otto" became by unanimous appointment of their excellencies photographer to the St. Paul. He developed all the plates and films that were exposed during the cruise of the converted liner. "Otto's" dark room was a little bit of hell. He had to work in his skin, clothes being unbearable in the awful torridity over the keel. He returned to New York with a set of pictures that he hoped to sell for $1,000 at least. Those he had printed for his superiors were worth more than their weight in gold. But he was disappointed. There was no demand, "Otto" got straitened and the lot went for $5. I do not know if the New York Yacht Club is assisting Charles Vogt in his canvass, but Commo dore Kane and Secretary Oddie might do worse than send down a few cart wheels and cart-tailers just to let "Otto" understand that he is not forgotten. "GARLAND" STOVES AND RANGES

Martin Fosler, of Laurel, Whom the President Saved from Ruin. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

LAUREL, Ind., Oct. 25 .- Martin Fosler, of whose life a short sketch appeared in to-day's Journal, was found dead in bed yesterday morning. The coroner's verdict was heart trouble. There was much in the life of Martin Fosler that was touching and pathetic. The little money he saved through the efforts of William Mc-Kinley, at Canton, O., in 1875, was later lost through Archbishop Purcell, of Cincinnati. Through all his misfortunes he remained optimistic and never lost faith in the goodness of mankind in general. The one towering figure and friend of the laboring man, in the mind of Martin Fosler, was President William McKinley. He said, only a few days before his death that, although he was a Democrat, he voted for McKinley in 1896 and intended doing so this year.

On It Republicans Can Stand Without Any Misgivings.

When McKinley stands upon the record of his administration of national affairs for the last four years he stands in a position wholly unassallable. To prove as much, it is only necessary to glance back. The achievements of these four years, the conditions they have wrought on the welfare of the people, the monumental addition to our prestige abroad-these things make argument there is no resisting. Let us look

The Republican platform on which Mc-Kinley was elected in 1896 made four precise and specific pledges: First, to place the protect American capital and labor; third, to reassert the Monroe doctrine in its full extent; fourth, to maintain a firm and dignified foreign policy with American control of the Hawaiian islands. The fidelity with which these pledges have been kept is the bulwark upon which the supporters of the administration build their confidence. First in financial importance must be reckoned the Dingley tariff; second, the reform in the currency; third, the war loan of 1898; fourth, the settlement of the Pacific Railroad indebtedness. The measure bearing the name of the late Mr. Dingley was passed by the House of Representatives March 31, 1897, less than a month after the inauguration of the President. That has the appearance of reasonable promptitude. After tinkering by conference committees the bill became a law on July 24. No other tariff law was ever passed in so short a time. The Dingley law formed the basis of the prosperity of which the Nation is now

feeling the full effects

The currency law placed on the statute book March 14 of the present year establishes the soundness of our money. It directs that all money issued by the United States shall be maintained at one standard of value, and such maintenance is made the duty of the secretary of the treasury. A reserve fund of $150,000,000 in gold coin and bullion is set apart in the treasury for the stration to be made in Muncie Sunday aft- redemption of United States notes and treasury notes of 1890, instead of $100,000,000, formerly recognized as the gold reserve. The most notable feature of the law is that which relates to the refunding of the national debt. The 5 per cents, of 1904, the per cents, of 1907, and the 3 per cents, of 1908, the principal of which aggregates $839,146,400, were authorized to be refunded into 2 per cent, bonds, payable at the pleasure of the United States after thirty years from the date of their issue, and payable, principal and interest, in gold coin of the present standard of value. The act contains a provision that the new 2 per issued at less than par. The exchange of Cake, of the Cutters' League, and Pres- these old high-rate interest bonds for 2 145 N. Penn. per cents, is an achievement never accomplished by any other nation. Under the refunding provision the treasury effected a net saving in interest of $6,664,454 on bonds replaced between March 14 and May 4, 1900. The rapidity with which the Spanish-American war loan was subscribed was a superb demonstration of the stability of the national credit, and showed to governments abroad that American resources were absolutely unlimited. In thirty-one days the subscriptions reached $1,400,000,-000-nearly seven times the amount of bonds offered. If "money talks" that is shouting. The administration secured a practical settlement of the ancient Pacific Railroad debt, realizing, in cash or its equivalent, the sum of $124,421,670.95 in less than two years, out of a total indebtedness of $130,-000,000. It secured the annexation of the Hawalian Islands. It met firmly the exorbitant claims of the Canadian government with respect to the Alaskan boundary. It strengthened the navy. It won a swift and glorious victory over Spain. It secured unobstructed privileges of trade for American merchants in China. It is an administration that has more

CARPETS. CHAS. WILLIG,

Sores and Ulcers never become chronic unless the blood is in poor condition - is sluggish, weak and unable to throw off the poisons that accumulate in it. The system must be relieved of the unhealthy matter through the sore, and great danger to life would follow should it heal before the blood has been made pure and healthy and all impurities eliminated from the system. S.S.S. begins the cure by first cleansing and invigorating the blood, building up the general health and removing from the system A CONSTANT DRAIN effete matter. UPON THE SYSTEM When this has been accomplished the discharge gradually ceases, and the sore or ulcer heals. It is the tendency of these old indolent sores to grow worse and worse, and eventually to destroy the bones. Letter in Philadelphia Press.

The registration is so enormous, exceeding so greatly even the most enthusiastic hope of skilled Republican campaign managers, that there is serious apprehension that the vote cannot be all polled unless the election officers, or, if they fail, the courts designate additional polling places. The greatest congestion is to be, apparently, in the strongest Republican districts, and it would not be difficult for unfriendly election officers to delay the polling to an extent that might deprive several thousands of their votes. Therefore, an application is to be made at once to the election officers for additional polling places, the law contemplation polling booth for every 400 voters. If the election officers do not see fit to increase the number of polling places the courts will be at once appealed to for authority to set up additional polling places.
